Dear Year 6 Parents and Carers,

Homework

This week the format of the Year 6 homework has changed and it will remain like this until SATs.

Each child has been given three workbooks (Reading, Grammar & Punctuation, Maths). These contain tests designed to be completed in ten minutes. I have asked them to complete one test from each book every week. The ten minute time limit is not essential. The answers are in the back of each book and they should mark the tests themselves. If an answer is incorrect they should try to understand their mistake.

The children and I have decided to run a Homework Club on a Tuesday lunchtime. They may use this time for completing homework or, better still, asking me to explain questions that they do not understand. If they choose to attend, it would make life easier if they had a packed lunch that day.

Spellings have also changed if they are in group 2 or 3. With their homework this week they have a sheet with important words on it: the Group 2 Crucial List and the Group 3 Critical List. They need to start revising all the words on their list as they will be tested on ten random words each week. Keep the sheet safe!

The times table grid and reading sections remain the same.

If you have any questions, come and ask any time or email me.

Thanks for your continuing support!
